

The weekly service of our partners Van Duuren, has started in April with groupage service by truck from their hub in the Netherlands. Cargo originates from many European origins. Van Duuren has already announced the service both on their site as well as their newspaper and shippers has already shown their interest. Groupage shipments consists of deliveries in Greece, as well as shipments to be transhipped on our weekly consolidation service to Cyprus. This way the spediest procedure is achieved.